CONSPIRACY.
The crowning conspiracy of all against silver has been announced by Mr. Carlisle within the past week, and that is if it becomes necessary he will redeem standard silver dollars in gold; another endless chain is to be started if he should remain as Secretary of the Treasury or any Republican gets his place. Can it be that the man is mad? Does he have in his despair to destroy the Republic?

He who does not see the tendency of it all, does not want to see.

WON'T SERVE.
Hon. J. A. Sullivan has tendered his resignation as elector of the 8th district. All good men ought to be ashamed to have their names published with a lot of bolters and party destroyers, especially in a covert way.

No man has ever been a more faithful public servant than Mr. Sullivan. The most of those he now, by his conduct, treats as dishonest and ignorant, are the ones who stood by and elevated him.

We know they will appreciate this step on his part and that they would open wide their arms if he would only tear away from his corporate environment and take up the cause of the people against those bent on their destruction.

MADISON AT LEXINGTON.
Near one thousand of Madison's citizens went to Lexington last Tuesday to see W. J. Bryan. We doubt if ever a more pleasant day was spent by those who went. We think it the unanimous verdict the next day that they had never seen such a happy assemblage of persons. When a man is happy he thinks everybody else is.

All said they had never seen such a crowd before. It was amusing to hear it estimated. Many of the admirers of our chieftain were willing to swear that two hundred thousand of Kentucky's chivalry had met to honor their idol.

Big Sam D. said this settles Kentucky. There are enough men here to-day yelling themselves hoarse to give him Kentucky's vote and he said he could tell by the way a fellow hollowed how he would vote.

James Huggins had charge of the cavalry from Madison and showed his conduct that he had not forgotten the lessons learned in 1831-2 while following the gallant Morgan.

G. M. Willing's rooster created a yell from the boys every time he raised his perch.

Everybody so far as we could learn was pleased with Bryan. After he had spoken you could hear every side in that large audience. "I am not surprised now at his capturing the Chicago Convention. He has captured me and I would follow him to death." There is no question but what he is one of the greatest orators of this or any other age and that place will be accorded him in history. We wish every voter in Kentucky could have heard him.

REPUTATOR OR ROBBER.
A few days since a very animated conversation was heard in Richmond. One of the parties said with great vehemence: "I loaned you money worth 100 cents and do you think it right to pay me back with 63 cents. It would be straight out repudiation of 47 cents on every dollar you owe me, or only one half the interest you promised!"

"My friend I know I am indebted to you and my great anxiety to pay you all I promised has prevented me for a long time from seeing the money question in its true light. I believe you will admit that should free silver prevail and the mints be thrown open, any dollars I might pay you on what I owe you would at least pay your taxes, also any debts you may owe and to that extent at least I paid you would be to you 100 cents on every dollar paid."

The first speaker said, "I will admit to the extent you refer. I would not be injured; but what would be the result as to the residue? It would take nothing like the amount you owe me to pay my taxes and the few debts I owe, but when I wanted to invest it I could not buy what I can now."

Speaker No. 2 said, "I agree with you that you could not invest your money under free coinage to the advantage that you can now in property, but if you desired to loan the residue, I believe you could loan it at the same or a greater rate of interest than I have been paying you, but you are perfectly familiar with the circumstances under which I became indebted to you. You know I bought the farm on which I now reside in 1889. I had $7,000; the place cost me $12,000. I paid $5,000 down and improved and stocked the farm with $2,000. During the years 1889 and '90 I was able to pay expenses and interest and reduce the balance on that farm to $5,000. Prior to that time no one ever heard of parity between dollars, or intrinsic value. The Government was coinclinging between two and four million standard silver dollars every month and the talk then was that the Government was making the difference between the market price and mintage price of silver. ## Juror and Witness Claims.

The Auditor and Treasurer think it would be a good idea for Circuit Judges to announce from the bench that all witnesses, jurors and others that claim made against the State after the first of last July are being paid in cash and in full by the State. Otherwise, they think the witnesses and jurors now serving their respective courts may go on inadvertently selling their claims at a big discount to claim-shavers—Frankfort Capital.

Successful Meeting Closed.

Rev. Jesse Caldwell's protracted meeting at Antioch, on Tate's Creek, closed with fifty-five additions. Would have been a greater number, had he continued.

The name of this popular young minister has been misspelled so often by correspondents and others that few people recognize in him a grandson of that old-time minister, James C. Caldwell, some years deceased. His father is Robert Caldwell whose wife was a Cobb of Estill county.

Silver

Has captured the great State of New York. They have been reading that convincing little book of less than 100 pages entitled "Silver, the Money of the Common People."

"Don't take what other men say, but study for yourselves."

William J. Bryan.

Mail at once, one time and a two cent stamp, or twelve cents in stamps, and we will send copy.

R. H. Hayes' Publishing Co., 297 Post Telegraph Building, New York.

Caught in the Northwest.

A St. Paul, Minn. dispatch of Sept. 18 says: In Joseph Williams, of Motley, Minn., is this city under arrest for shooting his brother-in-law, John Cole, in Estill county, Ky., four years ago. Requisition papers were presented to Gov. Clough today by Capt. Harris, of Irvine, who has Williams, securing $300, which was paid. Williams alleges that the present arrest is the result of a conspiracy between Cole and the Sheriff, and he will resist a requisition.

Circuit Court.

The Court has been occupied ever since Friday with the case of Fayette Miller's widow and heirs against the National Fraternal Union. About January, a policy of $5,000 was taken on the life of Fayette Miller who resided three miles north of town. He died soon thereafter. The company refused to pay the policy. Capt. Harris, of Irvine, who has Williams, securing $300, which was paid. Williams alleges that the present arrest is the result of a conspiracy between Cole and the Sheriff, and he will resist a requisition.

Peaches and Snow.

Saturday evening's sudden change in temperature producing slight frost in favorable localities, while an abundance of peaches are yet on the trees, set Capt. Billy Smith to rumination in his extensive patch of old time fairs for something like it. He recalls that 65 years ago he pulled large, luscious peaches from the trees that were bent to the ground with snow. They were a long pointed peach resembling the white heart, and the young lady had been visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. L. McRoberts, at Stanford, for several weeks and Wednesday morning started for home, accompanied by Mr. Shanks. Wednesday night they were married. Mrs. Baldwin's family knew nothing of her intentions until an hour before the ceremony was pronounced, and Mr. Shanks' bride was in ignorance of it until notified by wire yesterday morning. The bride is said to be a very lovely character, and if any body in the world deserves such a good fortune, it is Will Shanks—Danville Advocate.

Surgery.

Bill Burnam is better. In fact he was relieved within a few hours. He fell down stairs and thought he had broken an arm. A mischievous doctor gave William an anesthetic, and while under the influence of it, bound up the arm with sticks of stove wood, tightly wrapped with a rope plow-line. Over all this, he wrapped a cloth and when William awoke sent him forth. Six hours later or about midnight, William sought relief at a drugstore, where he was relieved of the pain. He was bound for breakfast, and enough rope for a season's plowing. Not a bone was broken.

Sudden Death of the Register Proprietor.

Charles F. White was at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. Soon thereafter he was found prostrated in the yard of Mrs. H. L. White, on Second street, where he boarded. He was assisted to his room by Mr. Louis Booker, and having been furnished with a tub of hot water, was left alone, he saying that he would soon be himself again. About 2 o'clock in the morning Mr. N. V. White, who occupied the same room, heard heavy breathing and found that his roommate was unconscious. Dr. Gibson was called and then Dr. Payne. At 4 o'clock a postmortem was held and his trouble pronounced congestion of the lungs.

Funeral to-day at 10:30.

Charley White was 41 years old, a son of R. X. White, deceased, and brother to Mrs. Lizzie Pant, of South Carolina, and Mrs. William C. Miller, deceased, the mother of Richard White Miller, this place, and Mrs. Margaret, of South Carolina. He was never married. Leaves considerable property, $50,000 to $60,000, the Register printing office being part. He took out a life policy last January for $10,000 in the Netherlands. He had owned the Register only six months, and died just eleven months after his predecessor, F. M. Green. Deceased was an eminently quiet man and had remarkably few enemies if any.

On the Raging Slump.

A Frankfort special discloses a dark plot:

It is reported here that Hon. E. Tutt Burnam, Representative from Madison county, and supposed to be Deputy Insurance Commissioner, will leave his place in the Commissioner's office about October 1, spending a month canvassing for his brother in his race for Appellate Judge, and remaining out of the office till after the extra legislative session, in which he will be a leader on the Republican side of the House. There will be no longer any reason why he should not resign his legislative seat, and be regularly appointed to the incommensurate position, which he has been filling nevertheless for several months past.

Leonard Cook a Wonder.

The Blue Grass Region is getting to be very prolific in hypnotists and mind readers, men who manifest a very strange and mysterious power. The Cincinnati papers have lately been full of the wonderful tricks performed by Thomas J. Ready; and we have with us to-day Prof. Boone, who will bury a man and allow him to remain underground for three days finally bringing him out alive and well; but perhaps the most promising performer of this kind in the State is Mr. Leonard Cook of Winchester. Mr. Cook can perform all the stock "tricks" that are used by hypnotists to amuse audiences and perform them as good as the best, but more than that, he has made a close and scientific study of hypnotism and its allied branches, and his knowledge of theory is not surpassed by anyone in the West.

Mr. Cook is a young man, still in the early twenties, is the son of a rich hardware merchant in Winchester, and consequently has never seriously considered going on the stage and making of his occult science a marketable commodity.

His friends have urged him to do so, and it is asserted by those who know that if he should go on the stage he would take front rank immediately among the best in the country. Mr. Cook has several times exhibited his powers in parlors and store-rooms here in Lexington for the entertainment of his friends, and already there are many in this city who have seen and heard of his wonderful powers. Mr. Cook's modesty is only equalled by his power. He is in the city to-day and will witness Prof. Boone's feat of burying a man for three days. His friends have lately been very urgent that he should go on the stage, where fortune and fame would surely await him—Lexington Leader.

Cook is a Native of Richmond.

Like a flash of lightning from a clear sky came the dispatch to Mr. S. H. Shanks yesterday as follows: Miss Lena Baldwin and I were married at Baltimore last night. Will be home Friday.

W. H. Shanks.

On reading the dispatch the old gentleman seemed very much gratified, as indeed he should be for his new daughter is a lovely woman in every respect, being possessed of great personal charms besides a bright and highly cultivated mind.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baldwin, of Madison, her father being a prominent and wealthy farmer. Her father is a cousin of Mrs. J. J. McRoberts, of this place, and she has been with her for several weeks. Wednesday she went up home on some excuse saying she would be back yesterday, but Will met her en route and she decided to wait until tomorrow to return with him as his bonnie bride. While he has won a treasure, she has gained a model young man for a husband, for he is exemplary in habits, popular in society and of high standing in business. From our observations of both we are sure that the match is an excellent one and that it will prove a happy consummation of their hopes. May earth's fullest joys be ever theirs, and when they have climbed the hill of life together and rest at the foot on the other side may it be in sweetest peace and undying love—Stanford Journal.

The many Danville friends of Mr. W. H. Shanks, the well-known young Stanford merchant, will be surprised to hear of his unexpected marriage yesterday with Miss Lena Baldwin, daughter of T. E. Baldwin, a wealthy Madison county farmer. The young lady has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. L. McRoberts, at Stanford, for several weeks and Wednesday morning started for home, accompanied by Mr. Shanks. Wednesday night they were married. Mrs. Baldwin's family knew nothing of her intentions until an hour before the ceremony was pronounced, and Mr. Shanks' bride was in ignorance of it until notified by wire yesterday morning. The bride is said to be a very lovely character, and if any body in the world deserves such a good fortune, it is Will Shanks—Danville Advocate.

The CLIMAX heartily endorses all the Journal says of the bride. She is one of Madison's most attractive young ladies, and Mr. Shanks could have travelled the world over and not suited himself any better. She was educated at Glendale, Ohio. The surprise was as great here as at Stanford. The minister was Rev. W. F. Smith of the Christian Church. The couple arrived on the evening train from Stanford, and while she conversed a few minutes with friends, he sought Mr. W. L. Arnold and they secured the license and the minister. Driving out to Mr. Baldwin's, the family was awakened and the wedding took place within a few minutes.

The Pumpkins Talk.

C. S. Wells found in a field of corn, Monday, a pumpkin, one among thousands, that bears ominous figures as distinct as figures could be that tell a story of joy for the silver people. A small part of the color is yellow, or golden, the larger part being a pale green, or silver tinged. This shows that the numbers refer to Democratic majorities. The largest number, 33,000 evidently means Bryan's majority in Kentucky. The 600 means his majority in Madison county, and the two hundred his majority in Richmond. There are their characters that we cannot translate or describe. Mr. Wells is satisfied that no human being had placed the pumpkin before he found it.

A Saw-Mill in Town.

Stevens came up from Boonesborough, last week, and brought a portable saw-mill. He set it up at the R. N. L. & B. Depot and is now sawing walnut logs into plank. This method saves the shipping of bark, slabs, and other waste than is usually have to be disposed of. The plank goes East. A few popular logs will be sawed.

If you have a favorite shade tree about your premises that has died, carry the logs to Stevens and he will saw them into stuff the desired dimensions, and you can have a bed, a cupboard, a side board, dresser, or some other article of furniture made that will preserve your favorite old tree to succeeding generations.

Confederate Soldier's Reunion.

At a meeting of the Eighth Kentucky Cavalry, C. S. A., held in the county judges office at the court house, Lexington, Monday, Sept. 14, to provide ways and means to secure the history and roster of the above cavalry and hold a social reunion of old comrades, the following were present: Cicero Coleman, T. W. McCann, Chilesburg; B. H. Young, Louisville; George Sweeney, Versailles; G. B. Taylor, Nicholasville; S. G. Sharp, Wm. Fallon, C. C. Chinn, Joseph Lane, Lexington.

It was decided that the first reunion be held at Nicholasville, October 21-22. The following committee on By-laws and Constitution were appointed and requested to report at the next meeting: Cicero Coleman, B. H. Young and G. B. Sharp. Committee to arrange for the reunion, James Stephens, A. C. Stephens, S. G. Sharp, Lexington; Virgie Lewis, Bagdad; C. S. Weakley, Shelbyville; Wm. Stipp, Avon; Joseph Scott, Mt. Sterling; H. M. Taylor, Carlisle; G. S. Swiney, Versailles. Other names will be added to the committee as soon as the members of the various companies are heard from. The local committee will be appointed by the secretary, Geo. B. Taylor, and B. H. Young. Our people should feel proud of the honor accorded Nicholasville in the selection of this place to hold the first reunion, and those of the ex-Confederates who will be with us on the above occasion are assured of a hearty welcome—Nicholasville Journal.

HE WAS.

A Panola man writes to ask if Gov. Bradley "ever ran for any office on the Democratic ticket." Gov. Bradley was once a candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Attorney of Garrard. It was during that canvass, so we are informed, that he made the statement that if there was a drop of Republican blood in his veins he would upon them and let it out.

A non-partisan sound money (McKinley) club has been organized here. They are preparing to raise a "McKinley pole." The Louisville Times and other papers have been organized here with 40 standard Democrats affiliating. It happened that your correspondent was present at the first meeting and has as good right to know the proceedings of said meeting as any member of said club. Total number of members enrolled was 48, 26 of whom were colored men and seven women. After some preliminary proceedings, Mr. G. A. Roy was elected president and I M. Asher secretary. G. A. Roy made a few remarks in which he said that they met for the purpose of educating themselves on the financial question and whether we are to pay our hands in fifty cent dollars or the kind of money like we are at present paying. After studying the primer of the A. B. C. of finance, the financial question, "A to Z" and making a complete problem in a few moments, they met for the purpose of "studying and educating ourselves on the financial question." They essayed to call themselves the Valley View Non-partisan Sound-money Club. Here's to you, gentlemen, hoping you may cast your vote for the non political candidate for president when a convention nominates him.

Ice Cream Made by a New Process.

I have an Ice Cream Freezer that will freeze cream instantly. The Cream is put into the freezer and comes out instantly, smooth and perfectly frozen. This astonishes people and a crowd will gather to see the freezer in operation. They will all want to try the cream. You can sell cream as fast as it can be made and sell freezers to many of them who would not buy an old style freezer. It is really a curiosity and you can sell from $5 to $8 worth of cream and six to twelve freezers every day. This makes a good profit these hard times and is a new line of business where there is no competition. Write for particulars and information in regard to this new invention on application and will employ good salesman on salary.

Money! Make it Yourself.

I have never seen anything in the papers about the People's Mind. Well, we call it the "People's" because the inventor never patented it, but let everybody use it free. Any farmer can make a mill himself, and all the material consumed will not cost over $10. It is a splendid mill, will pump the deepest wells, and may last longer than any mill I ever had. Any person can get diagrams and complete directions free, as I did, by sending 18 two-cent stamps to pay postage, etc., to E. D. Wilson & Co., Allegheny, Pa. Wilson & Co. sell pumps and when you get your wind mill going would be glad to sell you a pump if you need it. It is certainly useless to pay $50 or $60 for a wind mill, when you can make one just as good for $10. I think there could be big money made putting these mills up through the country as everybody would like them.

Budding time.
The budding time for the young girl blossoms into womanhood—is a trying period in a woman's life. Much depends on the care and the treatment given then—a lifetime of "wealthy happiness," "society," "suffering sickness," "to bring girls into good condition and is particularly efficacious in its action on the peculiarly feminine organism. There is no sort of trouble that it will not correct if it is taken in time. Thousands of the worst possible cases have been cured by it. It works in a perfectly natural way and drives out disease by building up the strength and purifying the whole system.

Many modest women and girls suffer from these troubles, which they dread telling their troubles to their physician. They fear the most inevitable examinations and "local treatment." These things are usually wholly unnecessary.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do what no other doctor in a hundred can do—it will cure. In our two-page book entitled "The People's Medical Adviser," are hundreds of testimonials to its wonderful efficacy.

TOLL GATE WAR.

The Latest News in Washington County, Kentucky, Blown Up by Dynamite.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 21.—The toll gate remaining toll gates in Washington county were blown up by dynamite Thursday night. No toll is now being collected on any pike in the county.

Washington county has been in a turmoil for two weeks over the toll gate matter. The trouble grew out of the effort made at last November's election to make all turnpikes in the county free. The question was put to a vote of the people and it carried by a very large majority. A week ago last Saturday was set as the last day the gates would be tolled, but as no one was close to remove a hand of 100 men divided into squads, went into different parts of the county and cut down thirteen gates. Two men were arrested the Monday following, but gave bail and were released. Then information was received that if any more arrests were made the town of Springfield would be burned. This alarmed the citizens, and during the past week the town has been heavily guarded night and day. From this the regulators have been at work, and Thursday night's dynamite was the matter, at least for the present.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 21.—The burial of John Douglas, the hypnotized subject of Prof. Edwin H. Boone, in Belt Lane park, has created something of a sensation. All day the park has been crowded with persons, each eager to peer down the tube upon the face of the apparently dead boy six feet under ground.

Among the visitors Thursday was Charles Chilton Moore, the editor of an infidel paper. He wanted to know if he believed the burial was a fake, and that he would not be convinced otherwise until he had himself experienced it. He wanted Boone to try him right there, but Boone told him he could not handle more than one subject at a time, and that if Col. Moore would come down to the Lexington opera house next Friday night he would take care of him as soon as he relieves Douglas of the spell. Moore told Boone he would be with him, and that he would bring a coffin with him, and that he would pay Boone for his trouble if he succeeded in hypnotizing him.

"In addition to this," said Moore, "if you do hypnotize me you can put me in the coffin, screw it down tight and bury me anywhere and as long as you please. I'll be put in writing. Boone says he will take the skeptical editor.
